EUDA conference on drug- related violence

Mrs Frédérique Camilleri
Prefect (France)

The changing nature of drug-related violence and its impact on institutions and the general public

A change in the nature and impacts of drug-related violence

- .New types of shooters
- .New types of victims
- .New trends : the staging of violence

- .Harder investigations
- .Increased attention from the general public
- .Violence as an end instead of a tool

Drug-related violence puts the State's authority to the test

- .Violence is spreading to new areas
- .Corruption cases are increasing
- .Fears of having mafia-type organizations in the upcoming years

The call for a change of paradigm in our legal and operational tools
