

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

(by the Members and Observers of the EUDA Scientific Committee (SC) and the extended Scientific Committee (eSC))

First name:JOHANNA

Last name: IVERS.....

Position in the EUDA SC or eSC:

- Member of the Scientific Committee
- Observer of the Scientific Committee
- Expert participating in the extended Scientific Committee

On my honour, at the best of my knowledge and for the purpose of the performance of the activities in and for the EUDA Scientific Committee and/or the extended Scientific Committee, I hereby declare that:

- I will act in a personal capacity, in the public interest and independently of the EU Member States, of the EU Institutions and of any external influence.
- I will comply with the rules of procedure of the EUDA Scientific Committee.
- I am aware that I will have the primary responsibility for spontaneously declaring any conflicts of interest at all times, with special attention paid to any interest which might be considered prejudicial to my independence in relation to the items on the agenda of a meeting of the EUDA body that I have to attend.
- I have read and am aware of the content of the Privacy statement on the protection of personal data resulting from this Declaration, as it is provided here below.
- I have read and am aware of the EUDA Policy for the prevention and management of conflicts of interest as adopted by the EUDA Management Board at its meeting of 4 July 2024 (EUDA/26/24 as published on the EUDA website).

Done at ...26/11/2025.....on ...11.53.....

Signature ...

Privacy statement on protection of personal data resulting from the Declaration of independence

The EUDA shall process any personal data resulting from any Declaration of independence delivered in accordance with the EUDA Policy for the prevention and management of conflicts of interest, hereinafter referred to as the 'Policy' (EUDA/26/24, as adopted by the EUDA Management Board at its meeting of 4 July 2024 and published on the EUDA website), pursuant to the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC.

1. Purpose of this data processing

The purpose of the data processing is to ensure and safeguard the impartial functioning and the independent operations of the EUDA and its bodies, in the public interest and in accordance with the mandate assigned to the latter.

2. Legal basis

The legal basis for this data processing is provided by the above-mentioned decision of the EUDA Management Board adopting the EUDA Policy for the prevention and management of conflicts of interest, as published on the EUDA website.

In particular this Policy defines the nature of the interests to be declared, the obligation to do so, the possible consequences of not declaring, and provides for the publication of the Declaration of independence on the EUDA website.

3. Personal data concerned

In this processing operation, the EUDA processes data directly collected from you. Such data may include the following:

- First name and last name.
- Membership to a specific EUDA entity or body.

4. Responsible of the data

The EUDA is ultimately responsible for complying with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. On behalf of the EUDA, the Executive Director is the 'data controller' to ensure the lawful conduct of this processing operation.

5. Who has access to your information and to whom is it disclosed?

For the purpose of this data processing the Declaration of independence will be disclosed to the recipients identified in the aforementioned Policy, namely the Members of the EUDA Scientific Committee and the EUDA Executive Director, as well as, under the authority of the latter and as required by the relevant data processing, the Head of the EUDA 'Executive Office', the Head of the EUDA 'Resources management and administrative services unit' and the staff members in charge of the assistance to the EUDA Scientific Committee and of the management of the EUDA website.

Furthermore, and in line with the pertinent provisions of the relevant EU legislation, the Declaration of independence may be disclosed to bodies and actors in charge of audit, control, inspection or review of the EUDA acts, such as the European Court of Auditors, the EC Internal Audit Service, OLAF, the European Ombudsman and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

6. How long does the EUDA keep your data?

The EUDA Executive Director, as the responsible data controller, will ensure that any Declaration of independence is duly filed and kept for a maximum retention period which will expire on the date of the decision providing discharge to the EUDA Executive Director, following the termination of the mandate of the concerned person in the relevant EUDA body.

In case the Declaration of independence is not delivered or is not complete, the EUDA Executive Director, as the responsible data controller, will contact the data subject concerned for the purpose of the required delivery or completion of the Declaration.

7. Data security

The Agency has put appropriate technical and organisational measures in place (security policies and procedures) to protect personal data from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access. The Agency takes all necessary measures to ensure the maximum safety and security of personal data held both offline and online, in hardcopy and digital form.

8. Your data protection rights

As a data subject (i.e., an individual whose personal data is processed), you have a number of rights:

- Right to be informed – This privacy statement provides information on how the EUDA collects and uses your personal data.
- Right to access – You have the right to access your personal data. You have the right to request and obtain a copy of the personal data processed by the EUDA.
- Right to rectification – You have the right to obtain - without undue delay - the rectification or completion of your personal data if it is incorrect or incomplete.
- Right to withdraw consent – You have the right to withdraw consent in line with Article 7 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 where the Agency relies on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before consent is withdrawn. Please note that if you withdraw your consent, this might have consequences on your membership. The EUDA will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
- Right to erasure – You have the right to require the EUDA to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing. In certain cases, your data may be kept to the extent it is necessary, for example, to comply with a legal obligation of the Agency or if it is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health.
- Right to restrict processing – In a few, codified cases, you have the right to obtain the restriction of the processing, meaning that your data will only be stored, but not actively processed for a limited period of time.
- Right to object – If the Agency processes your data for the performance of a task in the public interest (without your consent or another lawful basis), you have the right to object to this processing on grounds related to your particular situation.

- Right to portability - Where the processing is carried out based on your consent and in automated means you have the right to receive your personal data (which was provided to the EUDA by you) in a machine-readable format. You may also ask the EUDA to directly transfer such data to another controller.

9. Contact information

For the purpose of exercising the above-mentioned rights or should you have any questions regarding the processing of your personal data, or you think that the processing is unlawful or not in compliance with this privacy statement, please contact in writing the EUDA Executive Director, as the responsible data controller.

10. Recourse

The data subject may address the EUDA data protection officer (DPO@euda.europa.eu) for possible questions concerning the protection of his/her personal data.

Without prejudice to any judicial remedy, the data subject will have the right to lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@europa.eu), if he/she considers that his/her rights to the protection of his/her personal data have been infringed.